Hello Fellow Runner!

What a year we have had. I cannot believe that we are past the half-way point in our calendar. We had some fantastic late spring and early summer races occur. The Chattanooga Chase, our oldest race was again a big time success. The Market Street Mile was just the same way with a great turnout for that event. As usual the Waterfront Triathlon was an excellent event. I would like to commend the race directors for organizing such great events. I would also like to thank all of the volunteers for coming out and helping. Most of all thank you to you the members for showing up and supporting the Chattanooga Track Club!

This summer also marked a big occasion for the Club. In March the Board of Governors unanimously voted to approve the hiring of a full time Club Manager. Many qualified candidates submitted their resumes from April until June. From there we interviewed several people, and in the end the interview panel selected Stacey Malecky. Stacey comes to us from West Virginia. You can read more about her and her goals later on this issue. Stacey is very qualified for this position and brings a lot of experience to the Chattanooga Track Club. I have no doubt she will do a terrific job and will continue to grow the club.

Speaking of growth have you seen how many members there are in the Chattanooga Track Club? Right now we are over 800 members. This is up 30% from 2011 and there's still a few months left. Clearly we are a club that is growing. While growth is important, it's also important we maintain quality and dedication. As your President I am committed to quality and to serving you. If you have any questions or comments please let me know. I enjoy hearing from our members! Sincerely,

Chas Webb

The Long Run

The Long Run is the endowment fund of The Chattanooga Track Club. The fund was established in 2005 to create a perpetual investment and financial resource to support the mission of the Chattanooga Track Club. The Club is committed to being a good steward of these funds, and is appreciative of your generosity to help build this legacy for our community.

I grew up in Massachusetts, south of Boston, and graduated from Middleboro High School. Middleboro is the secondlargest town in Massachusetts and home of Tom Thumb, the 19th Century little person made famous by circus pioneer P.T. Barnum. I went to college at the University of Pittsburgh starting out in chemical engineering but just couldn't convince myself I belonged there. I ultimately graduated with a degree in Neuroscience choosing the to-time. It seemed intimidating, he was a pretty fast runner and I got out of breath just trying to catch the elevator. I waited until he left one semester for an internship and took the free shuttle to the mall where I bought a $15 pair of running shoes at an outlet, laced up and that was that. The first few weeks were tough, but I kept plugging away and haven't looked back since. My first race was a 5k in May 1999. Since then I have run tons of 5ks, a handful of marathons and half

Introducing, Your CTC Club Manager

In Spring 2013, the Board of Governors for Chattanooga Track Club unanimously voted to create, within the organization, the position of Club Manager to support the many members and volunteers and to provide leadership for organized and sustained growth of the Track Club. After a search process and review of many, qualified candidates, the selection panel chose Stacey Malecky as Club Manager. In this issue of Jogging Around Stacey introduces herself. In later issues she will tell more about her role and responsibilities serving the Chattanooga Track Club.

major both for the challenge it presented and because I was contemplating medical school.

After graduating with my Bachelors Degree in 2000 I lived in Connecticut and Louisiana before arriving in Morgantown, West Virginia. I've spent the last 9+ years there working as a finance administrator with the School of Medicine at West Virginia University's Health Sciences Center.

I never had any interest in running before college. My only exposure to the sport was as a form of "punishment" in PE class. Freshman year in college I met my husband (then boyfriend) who, at the time, was a crosscountry and track runner at Pitt. My first impression of him as a runner was that he was out of his mind. I could not fathom why anyone would want to sweat or be out of breath on purpose. He insisted it would fit my personality, as I've been known to like a little challenge from timemarathons as well as a few ultras. My next big goal is to complete a 100 miler hopefully in 2014. If I had to pick a favorite race, I would say Highlands Sky 40 miler in Davis, WV, although I do love a good Turkey Trot on Thanksgiving Day. It's tradition; no matter where I am I find one!

I am thrilled to have this opportunity to serve as Club Manager for the Chattanooga Track Club. For many years I was involved in a running club in West Virginia, but had limited availability due to full-time work, family, etc. This opportunity offers the best of both worlds. On a daily basis I get to be involved with something I care deeply about. I love the mission of this organization. I feel extremely fortunate that it's my job to provide support to such a great team and assist them with making the words of our mission become actions.

We are so fortunate to live in an area where outdoor recreation and fitness are welcome and even considered a priority. In such an environment the possibilities for our club are endless. We have lofty, but entirely reachable goals to grow our membership and expand our events; two goals that are crucial to our ability to thrive. With great leadership in place, and a hard-working team, we can reach and surpass our goals. In the end, our objective is to make walkers and runners of all ages and abilities feel welcome as part of our club at races and other functions. While we have an excellent race team and many extremely talented runners, we also want to reach out to families, youth groups, business and many others. We want to encourage them to appreciate how much fun running and racing can be, especially when we participate together. We are ambassadors of the sport, and we look for ways to encourage activity via racing, volunteering or even just coming out to an event and cheering others on. It's an amazing thing to be a part of on any level.

I love Chattanooga. My husband moved here in October 2012 to begin his new job while the kids and I were not able to join him here until March 2013. We had a chance to visit in December of 2012, and I was INSTANTLY HOOKED. I couldn't wait to be here permanently! Chattanooga is such a vibrant community. It's rich with activity and very outdoor friendly. There is plenty of running to be found in whichever environment you prefer. There are miles of safe roads, plenty of rail-trail type paths, and many challenging mountain trails. With so many runners here I feel right at home.

My first event as a "Chattanoogan" was the Chickamauga Chase in April. I immediately noticed what a well-organized event it was and was impressed by the CTC's management of the event. There was such a family-friendly vibe. My two children did the kids' run and had a blast.

As for working with the CTC - I am amazed on a daily basis at the level of commitment and dedication among the officers and board members of this organization. Each of them invests so much time and energy to making things happen, on a volunteer basis - no less. This group is always keeping the club's mission in mind and looking for ways to share running and fitness with our community.

On a personal note, I met my husband Mark in college and we've been together 15 years. He's also a runner (although much faster than I). I refer to him as my partner in running crime. We're always convincing one another to try different types of events and distances. We're not even fazed by each other's smelly running shoes or sweaty clothes anymore; love in its truest sense.

We have 2 children – an 8 year old daughter and a 5 year old son. They both love outdoor activities and have really enjoyed running some of the kids' races in town. Our daughter ran her first 5k this spring and beat my first 5k time by more than 5 minutes. I was impressed! I tell them they can do any sport they want, but secretly hope they'll always love to run. They're pretty interested for the moment, mostly because they've seen Mark and me encourage one another and really have fun with it. Running, as they know it, has never been punishment.

Here are a few more facts about me:

• I used to have a thick Boston accent. In college people would ask me to say water, beer and quarter just for laughs (Wattah, Beeah, Quaddah).

At the time I had no idea what was so funny.

- I grew up with two younger siblings. My brother was/is a collector of creatures. It was not uncommon to find a wayward snake in our house.
   To this day, snakes fascinate me more than scare me.
- It is physically impossible for me to say 'YMCA' without bursting into song and making letter motions.
- Organic Chemistry, Neurophysiology and Economics were my favorite classes in college.
- When 8 months pregnant with my son, I speedwalked a race in PA and (erroneously) won 1st place male runner in my age group. It was priceless to see the reaction when I went up to claim my award.
- I enjoy painting (walls, not art) and find it extremely therapeutic. I never use the blue tape.
   I edge by hand. There is something so calming about painting a nice, straight line. It's hilarious seeing how people react when I explain this.

Inaugural Summer
Training Camp
Concludes. Mini Camp
Planned for Winter.

The inaugural summer camp hosted by the Chattanooga Track Club and Front Runner Athletics with coaches Bill and Jan Gautier was run in the month of July. The series started at the Greenway on Mondays and at Baylor School on Wednesdays. It was a chance for area runners to train together and learn about their sport. The camp started with an introduction of running form and technique. The second week covered pre and post running hydration. Different forms of workouts were covered; such as fartlek, intervals, steady states and base runs. On Wednesdays, core workouts were emphasized after the run. Pre-competition preparation was also covered to help with the runners' upcoming competitions. On the last day, the runners were placed in a handicapped race, based on ability. All participates received a dry-fit t-shirt thanks to Front Runners Athletics and the Chattanooga Track Club. We want to thank all of the Middle School runners, the High school runners from Soddy Daisy, St Jude, Signal Mountain, Baylor and all post graduate runners who attended the camp. Without their interest and dedication to their sport, we would not have had as much success. It was a great experience for everyone. We already have plans for a mini winter camp. Details will be posted later. We wish the best to everyone's upcoming racing season.

The CTC is fast approaching its 50th anniversary and the club's future is bright with the commitment of so many new faces and leaders. But looking back, there are a few people you may not know first-hand but whose footprint on our club and the fitness community in Chattanooga are indelible. Richard Park, Sr. is one of those folks. A fixture for many years at races and functions, I can still hear him plain as day encouraging someone, "Good for you!" In a world that seems to scream "good for me", it powered many Track Club members to their next PR or longer race.

The following article was published online at Huffington Post in July 2013. It was written about Richard by his son David and touches on so much of what is most important in our lives as runner—parents, sons and daughters, brothers and sisters, husbands and wives. It resonates with love and hope and perseverance.

Donating My Bone Marrow to Dad

I told myself I would be strong. The news, I knew, would not be good. But it was still hard to process. The doctor's words were coldly clinical, unfamiliar. He spoke of bone marrow, platelet counts and the 16th chromosome. He discussed "aggressive treatments" that would kill my dad's bad blood cells and his good ones, too

My dad sat still for a moment. When he finally spoke, his first question was not about the diagnosis itself, but about any potential threat to my brother Ricky and me. I turned to the window to conceal my tears.

In the weeks since the diagnosis – myelodysplastic syndrome, the same cancer that Robin Roberts battled – I've spent many hours wondering how this could happen to someone as seemingly indestructible as my dad. He has run 21 marathons, 15 ultramarathons (including a 100-mile race through the Sierra Nevada mountain range), hiked the Appalachian Trail from Georgia to Maine and walked the Camino de Santiago pilgrimage route in Spain. Just five months ago, he and my stepmother, Pam, hiked to the bottom of the Grand Canyon, and then all the way back up.

Before the diagnosis, he had been working on his memoirs. He planned to title them My First 75 Years, as if there were no reason he couldn't live another three-quarters of a century.

I have also spent time thinking about why this happened, something that doctors can't answer. There's no recognized cause for myelodysplastic syndrome. It's not genetic. To my dad's relief, my brother and I are no more at risk than anyone else. For the approximately 10,000 Americans who are diagnosed every year, this disease is pure chance.

And then there's a deeper why. Why shouldn't he see his grandchildren graduate from high school and begin their lives as adults?

He devoted his life to others – as a father, a grandfather, a husband, a son, a brother, an uncle, a coach, a teacher and a friend. So why my dad? Why now?

I was 10 when my parents divorced. I said goodbye to my brother and dad and moved from Tennessee to live with my mom in California. I knew my dad wanted whatever was best for me, but deep down I think he wanted me to stay with him, to live in the house where I had grown up, to go to the same school he and my grandfather had gone to. But he knew that the pressure of choosing a parent was just too much for a 10 year old. So he accepted it.

I returned to Tennessee every summer and during the holidays. As a kid, I flew alone across the country with little more than a backpack, a teddy bear and a tennis racket. I loved playing ping pong and tennis with my dad, going swimming in Lake Ocoee and racing to the top of Sugarloaf Mountain. I remember how proud he was when I started running – eventually becoming one of the best runners on my high school cross-country team in California. The times he got to see my races, he'd watch me reach the finish line and hold his arms in the air as if I had finished at the very front.

Because he knew I wanted to be a journalist, he cherished everything I wrote. He'd ask me to read my stories in front of family and friends. I was not outgoing like him; I was often shy among groups of people. But my dad made me feel like I was the best writer in the world.

I can't remember a time I needed him when he wasn't there. He was there when my appendix was removed and again for my ankle surgery. When he heard I had severe head injuries after being beaten by a group of skinheads when I was in college, he abandoned his hike on the Appalachian Trail to help nurse me back to health. Seeing him there calmed me, like everything in the world was okay again.

I remember coming out to him shortly after college. It may have been the most difficult conversation I've ever had. He didn't know anyone who was gay, and at first it was hard for him to respond at all. Then he said he loved me no matter what. He accepted me at a time when I barely could accept myself, and now he proudly sends me editorials about gay marriage and athletes that have come out of the closet.

With myelodysplastic syndrome, the only chance for full remission is a bone marrow transplant, which involves completely destroying the immune system and "rebooting" it as if you were a newborn. The doctors were reluctant at first to do a transplant on someone who's 75. But they also quickly realized that my father wasn't your typical 75 year old.

Moving quickly was essential, the doctors said. There was no time to search the national donor database. A transplant for mv dad hinged on whether Ricky or I was a bone marrow match. We were tested right away.

When I learned that I was a suitable donor, I realized our lives had come full circle. This is my chance to give something back to someone who has unconditionally given so much to me. And so next month – just before my dad's 76th birthday – we will go into the hospital together. My bone marrow will become his – and potentially will allow him to grow healthy blood cells so he can see his grandchildren grow up and embark on lives of their own.

Of course there are many risks, not least of which is that his body won't accept the new marrow. But I'm hopeful. After all, he's always accepted me before.

Since this article was written, Richard has received his bone marrow transplant and his doctors at Johns Hopkins are pleased with his progress. At the end of September, he will return home to Chattanooga to continue his recovery.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL RACE AT THE CHATTANOOGA CHASE

Chattanooga is a running community rich in history. The city is one of the most active in all of Tennessee and possibly the Southeast. Our roots can be traced back to as early as the 1920's. That is when the earliest Chattanooga Chase started. It would become official in 1967 and has been held annually since that date. Even going back to the 1920's the race has always been 8km. It's not a standard distance which is part of the draw to the race. Also part of the draw, are the tough hills. Some of the steepest hills on the Chattanooga running circuit are in the Chattanooga Chase.

So on May 18th, nearly 400 people came out and took part in this historic race. While people were not exhausted from the hills afterwards they knew they had accomplished something. They conquered some of the toughest hills in Chattanooga. On a hot muggy day that is no easy task. When runners finished they were greeted with face painting, refreshments and even a superhero contest. Some of the 8km runners felt so strong they ran in the 1 mile event that followed the grueling 8km run.

While there was much to cheer about at the Chattanooga Chase the biggest thing to cheer about was the donation to the Boston Marathon Fund. $4.300 was raised and sent to the Boston One Fund in late June. The fact that a race the size of the Chattanooga Chase could raise that amount of money is something to cheer about. That money will directly support the victims of the Boston Marathon tragedy.

If you missed the Chattanooga Chase this year well then you missed out. There is always next vear and the same great race that has been occurring for 46 years will be back! We will see you at the 2014 Chattanooga Chase.

UTC Half-marathon Club Seeks Student Runners for Fall 2013

The UTC Half-marathon Club is a student organization at the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga. Stephanie is a student at UTC and the founder of the club. The Chattanooga Track Club supports the efforts of the UTC Half-marathon Club to encourage training, running and volunteerism within the student running community but the two organizations are not directly affiliated.

My name is Stephanie Windle and I am a senior at UTC. I started UTC's Half Marathon Club in the spring of 2012 after completing my first half marathon. I felt a huge sense of accomplishment upon reaching the finish line, which inspired me to create the club. I wanted to start a club that allowed students to train together and complete a half marathon. The club became official in Fall 2012. Through UTC's Oak Street Roast, a yearly back-to-school event, and our Facebook page, the club began attracting interest. During our first active semester we held meetings where guest speakers discussed topics like injury prevention, nutrition, and running techniques. We also met for group runs 2-3 times a week. Club members from any level were welcome to attend the runs. Many of the club members trained for and completed the Chickamauga Battlefield Half Marathon. I really enjoyed finishing our first semester by participating together in the half marathon.

In our second active semester we continued with regular meetings and group runs. In March, some of our members completed the Tom King Classic Half Marathon and 5k. Three club members set their PR at this race! I am excited about the club's upcoming semester. This year we plan to work closely with the Chattanooga Track Club while training for another half marathon. If you are a UTC student please consider joining the Half Marathon Club. First-time runners and experienced runners are welcome! Our first meeting will be in late August or early September. Join the UTC Half Marathon Club Facebook group or email me at Stephanie-windle@mocs.utc.edu for more details about the club.

The Chickamauga Battlefield Marathon will be held Saturday, November 9, 2013. The 34th year of this premier running event will include a marathon, half-marathon, and a new 5K race. The ongoing Junior Marathon series, for children in first through sixth grades, will conclude with a 1-mile event at the marathon.

An event expo and pasta dinner will take place November 8. For information and to register for the race, go to www.battlefieldmarathon.com, or visit the Chattanooga Track Club website.

Chickamauga Battlefield Marathon Adds 5K Run to Support Children's Hospital

Only 300 spaces available for the first 5k race to be part of this historic running event.

Children's Hospital Foundation and Chattanooga Track Club representatives announced the addition of a 5K run to the Chickamauga Battlefield Marathon, Half Marathon and Junior Marathon event at 8 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 9, at the 6th Calvary Museum in Fort Oglethorpe.

Only 300 spaces are available for the run. Registration is $30. Net proceeds from the inaugural Chickamauga Battlefield 5K will benefit T.C. Thompson Children's Hospital at Erlanger. By registering as a Miracle Team member, participants can go the extra mile by fundraising for Children's Hospital.

"We encourage participants to form a group with friends, family members and co-workers and create a team. It is a great way to build camaraderie while also making a difference by helping raise funds to ensure all children in our area have the opportunity for a healthy future," said Ali Cobb, Annual Giving director for Children's Hospital Foundation. "Adult team members raising $250 and children raising $150 for Children's Hospital will receive special perks at the race."

To sign up for the Chickamauga Battlefield 5K, go online to www.battlefieldmarathon.com and select the "Registration" link. Online registration is open through Nov. 6. By also registering as a participant on the Miracle Team at www.miracleteam.org, athletes can create their own fundraising page and learn more about the Miracle Team Series. You can also contact Kaitlin Cook with Children's Hospital Foundation by emailing Kaitlin.Cook@erlanger.org or calling 423 778-3530.

The CTC Long Runners Club

The 2013 season is already more than half over, so we want to remind everyone who is gearing up for autumn distance running – or who might be motivated to gear up for autumn distance running about the new "Long Runner's Club," established by the CTC last year. Its purpose? To inspire its members to achieve a new benchmark in running, and to recognize those members who

"There is no telling how many miles you will have to run while chasing a dream." ~ Anonymous have accomplished a goal that either takes a long time to reach – or that just simply requires a long way to go! Without a doubt, the first crop of CTC Long Runners (Sal Coll, Pat Hagan, Missi Johnson, Cyrus Rhode, Jr., Truman Smith and Bonnie Wassin) has achieved a level of dedication and commitment to running that would exhaust most mere mortals.

The 2012 recipients, introduced at the annual CTC Banquet on Saturday, January 12, 2013, received awards for special achievements completed through November 30, 2012. For the 2013 season, CTC members may nominate themselves or other CTC members by simply providing proof of any annual accomplishment(s) completed between December 1, 2012 and November 30, 2013, and any lifetime accomplishments completed by November 30. 2013. Proof should be provided to the CTC Race Committee: VPRaces@chattanoogatrackclub.org. Any such accomplishments completed during those time periods will be recognized at the CTC Banquet in January 2014. Any accomplishments completed after those time periods will be awarded the following season.

AWARD CATEGORIES ARE AS FOLLOWS:

50-MILER AWARD – The 50-Miler Award is an annual award given to the CTC member who has completed at least one single-day event (road or trail) of at least 50 miles and less than 100 miles (stage races do not qualify unless one of the days is at least 50 miles).

100-MILER AWARD - The 100-Miler Award is an annual award given to the CTC member who has completed at least one event (road or trail) of 100 miles or more in length (stage races do not qualify unless one of the days is at least 100 miles).

100+ MARATHONS AWARD - This is a lifetime award to be given to the CTC member who has completed at least 100 marathons during his/her running career.

50 STATES AWARD – This is a lifetime award, to be given to the CTC member who has completed a marathon in each of the 50 states.

7 CONTINENTS AWARD – This is a lifetime award, to be given to the CTC member who has completed a marathon on each of the seven continents.

Chattanooga Track Club's Elementary School Cross Country Series

Chattanooga Track Club's Elementary School Cross Country Series begins Thursday, September 5, 2013, at Camp Jordan in East Ridge. These events, for 3rd, 4th and 5th grade students, are a great way to introduce running and fitness to young people. In the five years since this race series began, participation has increased tremendously. All students of any skill level are encouraged to participate and parents and local coaches are needed to volunteer and cheer on the young runners.

Race events will be held every Thursday in September at Camp Jordan Park beginning at 4:30 p.m. The dates are September 5, 12, 19 and 26. Parents will need to fill out a registration form/waiver and cost is only $1.00 per child.

Denny Marshall is director of this series. For event information and registration form please visit Chattanooga Track Club online (chattanoogatrackclub.org) and select the link for CTC Elementary School Cross Country Series. For questions and information on volunteering contact Denny at damarshall@hotmail.com.

Raccoon Mountain Road Race Makes Changes for 2013

The Chattanooga Track Club's Raccoon
Mountain 5K & 10K continues to experiment with new ideas to benefit area runners.

NEW THIS YEAR:

- $10 discount for runners age 21 and younger.
   Bring the entire family!
- New awards for winners: Instead of trophies or plaques, winning female and male runners in each division (overall, masters, grandmasters) in the 5K and 10K will receive a print of a spectacular aerial photograph of Raccoon Mountain.
- September 21 date. Traditionally held in August, the Raccoon Mountain race was deemed too hot and alternative dates were considered. Last year's event was held in May but because several ROY races are grouped from late April through May, while

- September is relatively open, the race has moved to September to more evenly spread the CTC schedule throughout the year.
- 9:00 A.M. Eastern start time. Starting one hour later than last May's start is partly required by the later sunrise in September and partly by the potential that the equipment and timing crew may not be allowed to access the mountain before dawn. Hopefully the later start will encourage participation from more late risers and out-of-towners. We will keep our fingers crossed regarding race-day temperature.

SAME AS LAST YEAR:

- Some of the most beautiful views on any course in the region. Lookout Mountain, the Tennessee River Gorge, and Lookout Valley can be seen as you run on the dam around TVA's 528 acre reservoir.
- 100% cotton T-shirts guaranteed for all participants, mailed after the race if necessary.
- Door prizes, including several running videos, running books, and cookware from Lodge Manufacturing. First name drawn gets to choose first door prize given away, and so forth. You must be present to win!
- Panera bagels, fruit, Powerade, and water at the finish line. Delicious!

Come out and participate September 21, at Laurel Point, Raccoon Mountain Pumped Storage Plant. See Chattanoogatrackclub.org for more details. Early registration is available on Active.com. Contact race director Steve Smalling at stevesmalling@charter.net with any questions.
